

Mr X

Once again the staff at DJM have volunteered to take part in the annual Mr X appeal in Swansea during the Christmas season.

The charity provides Christmas gifts for underprivileged children and youngsters from around the child care agencies in South West Wales. The appeal has been running for 53 years and is co-ordinated by an anonymous gentleman in Swansea who arranges a list of around 4,000 children each year.

This will be the 4th year that staff at DJM have taken part in the appeal and who have each year bought presents for around 20 children and youngsters who would not otherwise have received a present to open on Christmas day.

DJM are privileged to be part of such a special appeal and will continue to offer support in years to come.
