

Corporate Team on “Track” with deal completions

Douglas-Jones Mercer’s corporate team are pleased to have acted for the management team at Track Training in respect of a transaction that saw Gower College Swansea taking a strategic stake in Track Training.

Track Training chairman Malcolm Sanders said: "We believe this latest development will have a positive impact on our work with our clients and partners and will allow Track to expand its product portfolio and further strengthen its position in the marketplace."

See Insider Media article published on 22nd September 2015

Insider Media Article